11. QUESTIONS

- 11.1 A member may ask the Chairman of the Council or the Clerk any question concerning the business of the Council, provided three clear days notice of the question has been given to the person to whom it is addressed.

11.2 No questions not connected with business under discussion shall be asked except during the part of the meeting set aside for questions.

11.3 Every question shall be put and answered without discussion.

11.4 A person to whom a question has been put may decline to answer.

12. QUESTIONS FROM THE PUBLIC

12.1 A period of fifteen minutes shall be allowed for Public Questions at the beginning of each meeting of the Council excluding the Annual Meeting.

12.2 A member of the Public present at a meeting of the Council may ask the Chairman any question on any matter in relation to which Council has powers or duties or which affects the parish.

12.3 Every question shall only be put during the item on the Agenda which refers specifically to "Questions from the Public".

12.4 Every question shall be put and answered without discussion by the Chairman or, at his/her invitation, by another member, but the person to whom a question has been put may decline to answer. Any member of the Council who wishes to contribute to, or amplify the answer given, may do so at the discretion of the Chairman.

12.5 An answer may take the form of :-

- i) direct oral answer or
- ii) the desired information is contained in a publication of the Council, a reference to that publication, or
- iii) the reply to the question cannot conveniently be given orally, a written answer sent to the questioner, copies of which shall be circulated to members of the Council.

12.6 Questions for the public shall be limited to a maximum of five minutes per question.

13. RULES OF DEBATE

13.1 No discussion of the Minutes shall take place except upon their accuracy. Corrections to the Minutes shall be made by resolution and must be initialled by the Chairman.

13.2 A resolution or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded, and, unless proper notice has already been given, it shall, if required by the Chairman, be reduced to writing and handed to him before it is further discussed or put to the meeting.

- 13.3 A member when seconding a resolution or amendment may, if he then declares his intention to do so, reserve his speech until a later period of the debate.
- 13.4 A member shall direct his speech to the question under discussion or to a personal explanation or to a question of order.
- 13.5 No speech by a mover of a resolution shall exceed three minutes and no other speech shall exceed three minutes except by consent of the Council.
- 13.6 An amendment shall be either:-
- i) To leave out words.
 - ii) To leave out words and insert others
 - iii) To insert or add words.
- 13.7 An amendment shall not have the effect of negating the resolution before the Council.
- 13.8 If an amendment be carried, the resolution, as amended, shall take the place of the original resolution and shall become the resolution upon which any further amendment may be moved.
- 13.9 A further amendment shall not be moved until the Council has disposed of every amendment previously moved.
- 13.10 The mover of a resolution or of an amendment shall have a right of reply, not exceeding 3 minutes.
- 13.11 A member, other than the mover of a resolution, shall not, without leave of the Council, speak more than once on any resolution except to move an amendment or further amendment, or on an amendment, or on a point of order, or in personal explanation, or to move a closure.
- 13.12 A member may speak on a point of order or a personal explanation. A member speaking for these purposes shall be heard forthwith. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by the member, which may have been misunderstood.
- 13.13 A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer with the consent of the Council, which shall be signified without discussion, and no member may speak upon it after permission has been asked for its withdrawal unless such permission has been refused.

13.14 When a resolution is under debate no other resolution shall be moved except the following:-

- i) To amend the resolution.
- ii) To proceed to the next business.
- iii) To adjourn the debate.
- iv) That the question be now put.
- v) that a member named be not further heard.
- vi) That a member named leave the meeting.
- vii) The resolution be referred to a committee.
- viii) To exclude the public and press.
- ix) To adjourn the meeting.

13.15 A member shall remain seated when speaking unless requested to stand by the Chairman.

13.16 The ruling of the Chairman on a point of order or on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall not be discussed.

13.17.1 Members shall address the Chairman. If two or more members wish to speak, the Chairman shall decide who to call upon.

13.18 Whenever the Chairman speaks during a debate all other members shall be silent.

14. CLOSURE

14.1 At the end of any speech a member may, without comment, move “that the question be now put”, “that the debate be now adjourned” or “that the Council do now adjourn”. If such motion is seconded, the Chairman shall put the motion but, in the case of a motion “that the question be now put”, only if the Chairman is of the opinion that the question before the Council has been sufficiently debated. If the motion “that the question be now put” is carried, the Chairman shall call upon the mover to exercise or waive the right of reply and shall put the question immediately after that right has been exercised or waived. The adjournment of a debate or of the Council shall not prejudice the mover’s right of reply at the resumption.

15. DISORDERLY CONDUCT

15.1 No member shall at a meeting persistently disregard the ruling of the Chairman, wilfully obstruct business, or behave irregularly, offensively, improperly or in such a manner as to bring the office or the Council into disrepute. If, in the opinion of the Chairman, a member has broken these provisions, the Chairman shall express that opinion to the Council, and thereafter, any member may move that the member named be no longer heard or that the member named do leave the meeting, and the motion, if seconded, shall be put forthwith and without discussion. If either of these motions are disobeyed, the Chairman may adjourn the meeting or take such further steps as may reasonably be necessary to enforce them.

16. RIGHT OF REPLY

- 16.1 The mover of a resolution shall have a right to reply immediately before the resolution is put to the vote. If an amendment is proposed the mover of the amendment shall be entitled to reply immediately before the amendment is put to the vote. A member exercising a right of reply shall not introduce a new matter. After the right of reply has been exercised or waived, a vote shall be taken without further discussion.

17. ALTERATION OF RESOLUTION

- 17.1 A member may, with the consent of his secondary, move amendments to his own resolution.

18. RESCISSION OF PREVIOUS RESOLUTION

- 18.1 A decision (whether affirmative or negative) of the Council shall not be reversed within six months except either by a special resolution, the written notice whereof bears the names of at least four members of the Council, or by a resolution moved in pursuance of the report or recommendation of a committee. When a special resolution or any other resolution moved under this provision has been disposed of, no similar resolution may be moved within a further six months.

19. VOTING ON APPOINTMENTS

- 19.1 Where more than two persons have been nominated for any position to be filled by the Council and of the votes given there is not an absolute majority in favour of one person, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken, and so on until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person.

20. DISCUSSIONS AND RESOLUTIONS AFFECTING EMPLOYEES

- 20.1 If at a meeting there arises any question relating to the appointment, conduct, promotion, dismissal, salary or conditions of service, of any person employed by the Council, it shall not be considered until the Council or committee (as the case may be) has decided whether or not the press and public shall be excluded.

21. EXPENDITURE

- 21.1 Orders for the payment of money shall be authorised by resolution of the Council and signed by two members.

22. SEALING OF DOCUMENTS

23. COMMITTEES AND SUB-COMMITTEES

23.1 The Council may at its Annual Meeting appoint standing committees and may at any other time appoint such other committees as are necessary, but subject to any statutory provision in that behalf:-

- i) Shall not appoint any member of a committee so as to hold office later than the next Annual Meeting.
- ii) May dissolve or alter the membership of the committee.
- iii) The Chairman and Vice-Chairman, ex-officio, shall be voting members of every committee.

23.2 Every committee shall at its first meeting before proceeding to any other business, elect a Chairman and may elect a Vice-Chairman who shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting of the council, and shall settle its programme of meetings for the year.(alter to read below)

23.3 Every committee shall at its first meeting before proceeding to any other business, elect a Vice-Chairman (if the Chairman has been elected at the Council statutory annual meeting),who shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting of the council, and shall settle its programme of meetings for the year.

23.4 The membership of all Committees and Sub Committees shall consist of 13 named members and the ex officio Mayor and Deputy Mayor of the Council.

23.41 To be quorate all Committees must have a minimum of 7 Councillors in attendance and Sub Committees a minimum of 5 Councillors in attendance.

23.5 The Council may delegate its powers of scrutiny, expenditure and policy where necessary by Council resolution to any named Committee. It may revoke these delegated powers at its Annual Statutory meeting in full or in part by Council resolution at that meeting. The powers of delegation automatically cease on the election of a new Council and must be renewed/altered etc accordingly by the new Council on succession.

- 23.6 The Council may only delegate powers to Committees or Sub Committees and may not delegate powers to working groups of Councillors or co-opted members of the public. The Council may instead delegate any specific power to the Clerk, but subject to Standing orders 4 and 38.
- 23.7 Councillors who are members of the District Council Planning Committee may belong to the RTC Planning Committee. All members are reminded that if they have a closed mind they will be regarded as having a bias and therefore meet the test of being predetermined, which may be actionable in law.

(The LGA document: 'Probity in Planning for Councillors and Officers explains this matter).

24. SPECIAL MEETINGS

- 24.1 The Chairman of a committee or the Chairman of the Council may summon an additional meeting of that committee at any time. An additional meeting shall also be summoned on the requisition in writing of not less than a quarter of the members of the committee. The summons shall set out the business to be considered at the special meeting and no other business shall be transacted at that meeting.

25. SUB-COMMITTEES

- 25.1 Every committee may appoint sub-committees for purposes to be specified by the committee.
- 25.2 The Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the committee shall be members of every sub-committee appointed by it unless they signify that they do not wish to serve.
- 25.3 Except where ordered by the Council in the case of a committee, or by the Council or by the appropriate committee in the case of a sub-committee, the quorum of a committee or sub-committee shall be one-half of its members.
- 25.4 The Standing Orders on rules of debate (except those parts relating to standing and to speaking more than once) and the Standing Order on interests of members in contracts and other matters shall apply to committee and sub-committee meetings.
- 25.5 Members of committees and sub-committees entitled to vote, shall vote by show of hands, or, if at least two members so request, by signed ballot.
- 25.6 Chairmen of committees and sub-committees shall in the case of an equality of votes have a second or casting vote.
- 25.7 A member who has proposed a resolution, which has been referred to any committee of which he is not a member, may explain his resolution to the committee but shall not vote.

26. ACCOUNTS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENT

- 26.1 All accounts for payment and claims upon the Council shall be laid before the Council.
- 26.2 Where it is necessary to make a payment before it has been authorised by the Council, such payment shall be certified as to its correctness and urgency by the appropriate officer. Such payment shall be authorised by the committee, if any, having charge of the business to which it relates, or by the proper officer for payment with the approval of the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Council. All such payments shall be included in the next schedule of payments before the Council.
- 26.3 The Responsible Financial Officer shall supply to each member as soon as practicable after 31st March in each year a statement of the receipts and payments of the Council for the completed financial year. A Financial Statement prepared on the appropriate accounting basis (receipts and payments, or income and expenditure) for a year to 31st March shall be presented to each member before the end of the following month of May. The Statement of Accounts of the Council (which is subject to external audit) shall be presented to Council for formal approval at the appropriate time prior to completion of the annual return.

27. ESTIMATES/PRECEPT

- 27.1 The council shall approve written estimates for the coming financial year at its meeting before the end of the month of November. Any committee desiring to incur expenditure shall give the Clerk a written estimate of the expenditure recommended for the coming year no later than 30th October.

28. INTERESTS

- 28.1 If a member has a personal interest as defined by the Code of Conduct then he shall declare such interest as soon as it becomes apparent, disclosing the existence and nature of that interest as required.
- 28.2 If a member who has declared a personal interest then considers the interest to be prejudicial, he must withdraw from the room or chamber during consideration of the item to which the interest relates.
- 28.3 All declarations of interests shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting and the Clerk shall keep and maintain for inspection by the External Auditor and Monitoring Officer of Thanet District Council a register of declarations of interests at meetings.

29. APPOINTMENTS

- 29.1 If a candidate for any appointment under the Council is to his knowledge related to any member of or the holder of any office under the Council, he and the person to whom he is related shall disclose the relationship in writing to the Clerk. A candidate who fails so to do shall be disqualified for such appointment, and, if appointed, may be dismissed without notice. The Clerk shall report to the Council or to the appropriate committee any such disclosure.
